

THE ALCHEMY OF TRANSFORMATION WITH ATUM O'KANE

This program provides an in-depth experiential study of the essential alchemical operations which are at the heart of the process of transformation. Each operation and its corresponding psychological and spiritual dimensions will be studied. How these transformational processes reflect and affect relationships will be a topic of exploration. Special attention will be given to the archetypical images, myths, and sacred rituals of various traditions which embody the teachings of alchemy. Participants will be asked to engage these potent operations during the time between sessions. Spiritual practices, creative exercises and keeping a journal will be essential tools for integration.

Participants must have completed the two-year Spiritual Guidance training with Atum. The program will be held in Seattle, Washington.
