

3 day pilgrimage in Oaxaca with Atum O’Kane February 26, 27 & 28, 2018

Journey with Atum in a region that is a marvelous blend of Spanish colonial and indigenous Mexican cultures. We will explore how local spiritual traditions have absorbed Christianity while still maintaining the integrity of their original paths. The Virgin of Guadalupe is just one example of this syncretism of native religion and European religion. Oaxaca is a beautiful mountain pueblo offering fabulous and unique cuisine, amazing architecture, art galleries and great local handicrafts.

The format will be a combination of Atum’s teachings and excursions in Oaxaca and the surrounding area. Hotel and meals will not be included. There are a variety of restaurants in Oaxaca ranging from inexpensive taco bars to fine dining. After you have registered, a list will be sent out of reasonably priced hotels close to where our meetings will be held.

We will begin the morning of 2/26 and end late afternoon on 2/28. The International Spiritual Guidance Gathering will begin the next day, March 1.
