

PIR VILAYAT:
HIS SPIRITUAL LEGACY, HIS SOUL AND HIS JOURNEY

Seminar with Thomas Atum O’Kane

March 17-19, 2017 Seattle, WA

In India Atum asked the elderly Pir Vilayat how he wanted to be remembered. With a smile he replied, “As someone who was never possessed by an “ism”, including Sufism”.

During this workshop we will invoke his legacy through some of his most profound teachings and practices. We will challenge ourselves to reclaim our capacity for mystical union through ecstasy, splendor, sacredness and illumination.

We will learn to detach from distortions of our self-image and strive to awaken into our soul’s perspective and potential, opening ourselves up to manifest our divine qualities for the fulfilment of God within us.

Our goal will be to follow Pir Vilayat’s example of serving the emergence of a planetary consciousness, which is so essential to the healing of the heart. Fostering spiritual liberty in order to encompass the oneness of the human family will be our main focus, in full recognition of the call of the Spirit of Guidance to be co-creators in the unfoldment of the divine intention.

During our time together Atum will share numerous stories about Pir Vilayat and their journey together.
