

“Exploring the Archetypes of the Greek Gods”

A Create Retreat
With Atum O’Kane & Emmanuel O’Kane
October 6th – 14th 2024

“Explore the Archetypes of the Greek Gods”

Our intention is to make conscious their presence & influence on our being, life & the world around us. We will also reflect upon how the Feminine Archetypes become distorted for women when they live under a Patriarchal system.

Creative imagination exercises, storytelling, small group sharing & insights from Jungian psychology will be integrated into the program.

Join us on the Island of Crete for a Soul Space retreat. Our group will be staying in Renieris hotel in the picturesque village of Stalos. The family-owned hotel overlooks Stalos Bay (pictured above), and is home to panoramic views of the island of St. Theodore and the endless blue of the Aegean Sea. The sandy blue flag awarded Stalos beach lies 200 meters away. There are a number of restaurants located within walking distance. Our hotel is about 15 mins from Chania which is the main city / town in Crete. Chania is also where the airport is.

Most of our rooms will be Sea facing and will have their own balcony. (The Sea-facing rooms will be given on a first come first serve basis). The others will face the garden.

Our schedule will be spacious and will allow plenty of time for group bonding. Our group will be meeting outside by the garden and pool area. Atum will teach for around 3hrs in the morning. Contemplative exercises will be given to work on during the day. Most days we will meet again in the evening for a group sharing. We also plan on visiting a few churches, synagogues, and monasteries.
